

US-IALE Annual Conference

Tucson, Arizona ~ April 9 to 13, 2007

U.S. Regional Association of the International Association of Landscape Ecology

“Disturbances Across Gradients: From Desert Seas to Mountain Islands”

The U.S. Chapter of the International Association for Landscape Ecology (US-IALE) is hosting its 22nd Annual Conference on April 9 to 13, 2007 in Tucson, Arizona, USA. This year's conference will feature landscape disturbances and their effects on landscape ecology.

The first day of the conference will consist of workshops, followed by two and a half days of presentations and a field trip day sandwiched in between presentation days. The presentation days are composed of four concurrent sessions of 20 minute talks. There will be over 10 symposia in the conference. Plenary speakers are Dr. Jim Agee and Dr. Jesse Logan speaking on landscape disturbances of fire and mountain pine beetle. There will also be a plenary symposium on the last day organized by Bruce T. Milne, Richard T.T. Forman, John Weins, and Robert Gardner titled “Toward a Collective Disciplinary Agenda for Landscape Ecology: Goals and Strategies”. Complete details on the conference program and activities can be found at the US-IALE website (www.usiale.org).

The conference is being held at the DoubleTree Hotel Tucson at Reid Park. This hotel is located adjacent to beautiful Reid Park with ready access to golf, tennis, baseball, and jogging trails and is just minutes from the airport and downtown Tucson.

Rooms are available at the conference rate of $69 per night. Please plan on making your hotel reservations early to avoid the rush (Phone 1-800-222-TREE or direct 520-881-4200).

Conference registration is $350 for US-IALE members, $400 for non-members, $170 for student members, and $200 for non-member students before March 15, 2007. A late fee of $100 will be added to the registration fee after that date.

The deadline for submitting an abstract for oral/poster presentations is November 15, 2006.

Instructions for abstract submission, registration forms, and a tentative schedule is available on the US-IALE web site (<http://www.usiale.org>) for more details or call Bob Keane (phone: 406-329-4846, email: rkeane@fs.fed.us).
